SEVERAL INHABITANTS OF MARYLAND. April 39, 1782

NAMES OF THE PARTY April 1, 1782.

Thorough bred from the best stock in England, a fine bay now in his prime, near fixteen hands high, and looked upon by judges to be one of the finest borfes they ever law,

STANDS at my house in Westmoreland county, Virginia, twenty miles below Hooe's ferry, and nearly opposite to Lieucilen's warehouse, in St. Mary's county, in this state, where he will cover mares at six pounds specie the season. Pasturage equal to any in the country gratis, and the greatest care will be taken of the mares, but I will not be answerable for any acof the mares,

DANIEL M'CARTY.

N. B. Tobacco will be taken in discharge of the above specie, if the price can be agreed upon.

To be SOLD, LOT of ground of one whole acre in the city of A Annapolis, with a tan-yard thereon, and feveral valuable improvements, lying on a good landing. This los of ground I look on as the most valuable lot in the city to a man of real befiness, being so well adapted for the businesses of distilling, brewing, or sugar-baking, tanning, &c. &c. the springs are numerous and the xcellent.

Likewile an elegant brick house adjoining the church circle, in a dry and healthy part of the city, this house is 100 feet front, 3 flory high, has 20 fire places, the rooms are mostly large and well finished, and is one of tie first houses in the state for a house of entertainment, for which purpose it was originally intended, but may very well serve for two tenements. Any person in-clining to purchase one or both the asorelaid premises may know the terms of sale by applying to THOMAS HYDE.

N. B. All persons who have formerly had dealings with me, and their accounts are not yet fettled, I hope will call at my house in Annapolis and discharge the fame, or close their accounts by passing notes or bonds for their balances, and those who are indebted by any written obligation, are desired to discharge the same, or pay the interest and renew their obligations to their humble servant

T. H.

HE partnership of Wallace, Davidson, and Johnfon, having terminated some time since, it is ab-folutely necessary that the transactions of that concern should be settled: the subscribers therefore earnestly call on all those who are indebted to the faid company for dealings at Annapolis, Queen-Anne, and Notting-ham, immediately to fettle their balances by bond or note. Being well acquainted with the fearcity of moand other difficulties of the times, the subscribers do not prefs for payment, but a fettlement; and to show the world that they wish to do as they would be done by, they inform their creditors, that they are willing to give their bonds for any just claims against them, and to renew those of an old date.

For the convenience of their debtors, they have empowered Mr. Edward Botelar to settle their Notting.

ham store balances, Mr. Samuel Tyler those of Queen-Anne store, and they will give constant attendance at Annapolis for the purpose of settling the accounts of that store; they hope no person concerned will neglect to comply with this very moderate request, should there be any such, they may be affured that suits will be commenced against them the moment the courts are opened without any further notice.

C. WALLACE, J. DAVIDSON.
